++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Often cloudy but largely dry. Foggy in places by morning.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy this evening and overnight with a few clear spells but with any cloud thick enough to bring the chance of the odd spot of rain here and there. Where skies do clear it will turn foggy towards dawn. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Saturday:
Any fog will lift by mid morning leaving a bright day with variable cloud and some bright or sunny spells. Just a small chance of an isolated light shower developing. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mostly cloudy on Sunday with some rain at times, especially in the morning. Turning more unsettled and breezier next week but remaining mild by day and night.
